

Information for data subjects

according to Article 14 of the EMBL Internal Policy 68 ("IP68")

The Protein Data Bank in Europe will be the data controller of personal data you provide to the European Molecular Biology Laboratory ("EMBL") in connection with the AlphaFold education mailing list. Your data will be processed for the purposes of providing the users access to the service and better understanding the needs of the users and guide future improvements of the service.

The Protein Data Bank in Europe maintains your data in EMBL-EBI's internal IT systems used daily.

The source of the data is the ones that you will provide us with.

We collect the following categories of your personal data:

1. Name
2. Email address
3. Organisational affiliation

We rely on the following legal basis while processing your data:

- your consent (Article 6(2) of IP68).

You are not obliged to provide any such data to us. However, without it, we will not be able to provide you access to the service or we will only provide you a subset of functionalities available within the service.

Some of your personal data may be disclosed to the following categories of recipients. Those categories are:

1. Authorised EMBL-EBI staff.

There are no personal data transfers to third countries or to international organisations.

Your personal data will be stored:

- while the service is running and after the data subject has finished using the service. EMBL-EBI will keep the personal data for the minimum amount of time possible to ensure legal compliance and the possibility to undergo internal and external audits.

You can also exercise following rights, granted under the Article 16 of the EMBL Internal Policy No 68:

- a right not to be subject to a decision made by automated means (i.e., without any human intervention);
- a right to request access to your personal data;
- right to request information on the reasoning underlying data processing;
- a right to object to the processing of personal data;
- a right to request erasure or rectification of your personal data.

Please note that those rights can be subject to limitations, as described in Article 16 (2) of the EMBL Internal Policy No 68.

If you wish to exercise your rights or wish to contact the data controller regarding any other data protection related matters, you can contact us by sending an e-mail to: data-controller@ebi.ac.uk or by sending a letter to:

Advice on data protection matters can also be obtained from the EMBL Data Protection Officer (DPO), under Article 20(2) of the EMBL Internal Policy No 68. The DPO can be reached by email at dpo@embl.org.

If you wish to complain under Article 25(1) of the EMBL Internal Policy No 68, you may do so with the DPO by email at dpo@embl.org. If you believe that the response of the DPO is unsatisfactory or if the DPO has failed to respond within three months from receipt of the complaint, you may complain in writing to the Data Protection Committee. It can be reached by email at dpo@embl.org or by post at:
